Advantage Parts Program

KOHLER®

KOHLER® GENUINE PARTS

Our advantage is your advantage.

There's a whole set of new benefits for selling KOHLER® genuine parts — the new KOHLER Advantage Parts Program. It's about making your selling efforts even more efficient, more effective and more profitable. From easier and better inventory management and traffic-stopping displays to more comprehensive product offerings and merchandising opportunities, the KOHLER Advantage Parts Program is a winning proposition.

More profits.

As a valued partner, you have access to KOHLER genuine parts at low, competitive prices. The program's pricing structure means significant savings and bigger profits on every KOHLER genuine part you sell.

More convenience.

Your KOHLER distributor is your single source for KOHLER genuine parts. One supplier. One terrific way to save time and prevent hassles, with assured product availability.

More products.

When it comes to quick turnover items — filters, condensers, carburetor kits and electric starter kits — Kohler really delivers, ensuring that your shelves will always be stocked. And with such dependable product availability, you'll be able to accommodate all your customers, from DIYers to the pros.

More effective selling.

Kohler provides you with everything you'll need to maximize sales. Our powerful displays showcase our products and emphasize your belief in KOHLER Genuine Parts.

KOHLER Genuine Parts Packaging Options.

COMPLETE SATISFACTION.

With KOHLER genuine parts, you're selling the absolute best. And because Kohler provides you with packaging options designed to showcase the product and optimize sales.

BULK PACKS

Our bulk packs are the ideal solution for shop use, commercial accounts and over-the-counter business. Each pack carries ten individually packaged parts, clearly identified with KOHLER branding and part number. Bulk packs prevent contamination and damage while helping cut your storage space and labor requirements.

RETAIL BLISTER PACKS

Blister packaging is available on more products than ever before, including air filter/pre-cleaner kits, as well as new DIY items, including electric starters. Our blister packs all feature powerful graphics, clear parts numbers and unmistakable KOHLER Genuine Parts branding.
